How Jesus Reveals, Revives, & Recovers the Image of God for us

LUX Creative is a non-profit creative agency that works exclusively with other non-profit organizations. As a part of our mission, we seek to partner with churches and ministries to provide creative support and direction. We offer a range of services, for specific projects or as part of an ongoing partnership.

By partnering with LUX this way, you would also be providing the support and stability we need to further our mission of illuminating the work of socio-economic organizations throughout our city and beyond.
